

From the New York Area

Take I-80 West from the George Washington Bridge to its junction with I-380 North at Stroudsburg, PA

Take I-380 North to its junction with I-81 North at Scranton

Continue on I-81 North to the New Milford Exit (Exit 223)

Turn left (west) on PA Route 492 at the end of the ramp

Turn left (south) on US Route 11 at intersection at the bottom of the hill

Follow Route 11 for about one mile

Turn right on PA Route 706 (west), following signs for Montrose

Follow Route 706 to the outskirts of Montrose, turning right (north) on Route 29 (you'll see a golf course)

Follow Route 29 north for 8 miles to Lawsville Center

At the crossroads in Lawsville Center, you will see an orange and blue Camp Susquehannock sign directing you to turn left and up the hill

After about one mile, there will be another camp sign directing you to turn right on a dirt road. This is Tripp Lake Road.

Tripp Lake Road winds uphill and then levels out. Pass thru one intersection (after about one and a half miles on the dirt road), and the Camp entrance is on your left after about one half mile.

Alternate route from the NYC Area

Take the NY Thruway to the Harriman Interchange (Exit 16)

Proceed West on NY State Route 17 to I-84

Take I-84 West to its junction with I-380 (south of Scranton)

Follow I-380 North to its junction with I-81 North at Scranton

Continue on I-81 North to the New Milford Exit as described above